

COMPLETE HYDRANT

This is used for the connection of fixed underground ducts of PVC or fibrecement, to moveable ones. It is made up of a steel TEE with a diameter corresponding to the underground tubes, having a vertical steel column at the desired height. At its top a consolidated gas thread is provided to which the hydrant head is screwed.